

This year marks the 100th Anniversary of the creation of Mr. Peanut!

Antonio Gentile, a fifteen year old boy at the time, created the drawing which later became Mr. Peanut.

Mr. Gentile's nephew, Robert Slade, will talk about Mr. Gentile's interesting but relatively short life, and his relationship with the Obici family.

There will also be an exhibit with all of the original drawings.

Light refreshments will be available.

100 Years Of Mr. Peanut

A journey through the past with Robert Slade

Tuesday, July 12
2:00pm-3:00pm

Phillips-Dawson House
137 Bank St. | Suffolk, VA

Home of the Suffolk-Nansemond Historical Society